

BEYOND BELIEF

Inspired by the true story of Muslims who saved the lives of Jewish children in the Second World War. In 1942, in the Grand Mosque in Paris, 11-year-old Ruben is hiding from the Nazis. Already thousands of Jewish children have disappeared, and Ruben's parents are desperately trying to find his sister. Ruben must learn how to pass himself off as a Muslim, while he waits for the infamous Fox to help him get to Spain to be reunited with his family.

One hint of Ruben's true identity and he'll be killed. So will the people trying to save him. But when the mosque is raided and the Fox doesn't come, Ruben is forced to flee. Finding himself in the south of France, he discovers that he must adjust to a new reality, and to the startling revelation of the Fox's true identity.

- Inspired by true events.
- A timely story of inter-faith friendship and solidarity.
- A thrilling and heart-breaking tale of the horrors of war, and those who risked everything to save innocent lives.

LETTERS TO LEONARDO

When Matt Hudson turns fifteen, he receives a birthday card from his mother – but how can that be.

His father told him she died ten years ago. Was that a lie? Matt doesn't know who or what to believe.

He sets out to find his mother, and the reasons behind her abandonment soon become clear.

Unable to trust anyone living, and assigned a letter-writing project at school, Matt writes to his dead idol – Leonardo da Vinci.

This simple act helps him work through his feelings of betrayal, and understand how neglected mental illness can tear a family apart.
